

ANNE KMETYKO
MEET UP

BRIEF SYNOPSIS

Gabriel, a journalist who covers international conflicts, must return to Montréal when his younger brother Jordan is brutally murdered.

This journey forces Gabriel to reconnects with his past and confront his estranged father and sister. But the biggest challenge for him comes when he realizes that his brother's girlfriend is pregnant and carrying Jordan's baby.

This is a story about choices and consequences that bring together unlikely characters, who at first resist the changes they must make.